

Temple Ewell Primary school		Concepts of History Progression
Concept/Aim	Acorns	Willows	Elms	Sycamores	Oaks
Empire To understand how Empires have shaped the world today; increasing tolerance and respect for our diverse communities.	The queen is head of the British empire. Empire means different countries.	The Britain's technological advances allowed the Empire to grow.	How armies help to build empires, ancient and British.	The British Empire has grown through trade and religion.	Empires shape the lives, religion and culture, ancient and British.
Church To understand how Church has created an ethical framework for civilisation and how religion helps in building values like love, empathy, respect, and harmony.	The church is where people go for celebrations and to worship.	The church has inspired people to do great things.	The church changed from catholic to protestant and some of the consequences.	The relationship between the church and the monarchy.	The birth of Christianity. Different opinions and views of religion.
Monarchy To understand how the monarchy as a government system, has changed over the years to result in our current Royal Family and Houses of Parliament.	The monarch is usually a king or queen. The monarch is the one who has the final say in all that occurs within his or her country. Monarchies have been around for many years.	The monarch is usually a king or queen. The king or queen generally inherits his or her position in the government.	The two main types of monarchs are called an absolute monarchy and a constitutional monarchy. Monarchies in other cultures.	The monarch is head of the church and how the monarchy can use their position to change how the church is managed.	The monarchy has changed/adapted in the and how they have/ or have been influenced by the Houses of Parliament.
Technology To understand that technology has help us solve problems or improved life through the years and encourage our children to know anything is possible.	Technology is made by man to help solve problems.	There are different types of technology that have been invented to solve problems and make money.	Technologies can be used to create successful armies and navies.	Technology is a made up of two Greek Words Teche – art, craft, skill Ology – expression. Technology is a product of civilisation	Technology has had a huge impact on human lives. Be able to spot the types of technology that have positive impacts on different civilisations.
Civilization To understand how civilizations grow and improve through language, arts, trade, religion, science and democracy Allowing our children to have a better understanding of the world.	How people live has changed through time through art.	How people's lives have been improved through technology.	How different civilizations grew through trade and religion.	The impact of religion, democracy and science. How migration influences cultures and society.	How cultures change, migrate and adapted to new challenges. Why it is important have different arts, religions and trade.

